Road Block

Anti-roads National Networking Conference

Saturday 10th June 2006 11am - 5pm
in Central Birmingham

Special Guest Speaker:

Jason Torrance - Campaigns
Director of Transport 2000

For campaigners against road building, the Road Block national conference is a fantastic opportunity to meet others who are opposing road schemes around the country.

A chance to network, share information, learn skills, and share strategies for new and experienced campaigners alike.

Workshops with top experts and campaigners include:

- Understanding the planning and political processes
- Getting information and challenging decisions
- Climate Change
- Learn skills and knowledge for defeating road schemes
- Getting attention for your campaign

Road Block is an alliance of groups and individuals campaigning against road building. We aim to help campaigners by:

- Offering support and training for local groups and campaigners through briefings, telephone advice, and conferences.
- Linking up local groups to sources of help
- Providing an overview of national and regional road building policy developments
- Contributing to a better informed media debate about road building and generate positive media coverage for the anti-roads movement
